SEPTEMBER 2009

Hi to all

Welcome to the newsletter for September 2009

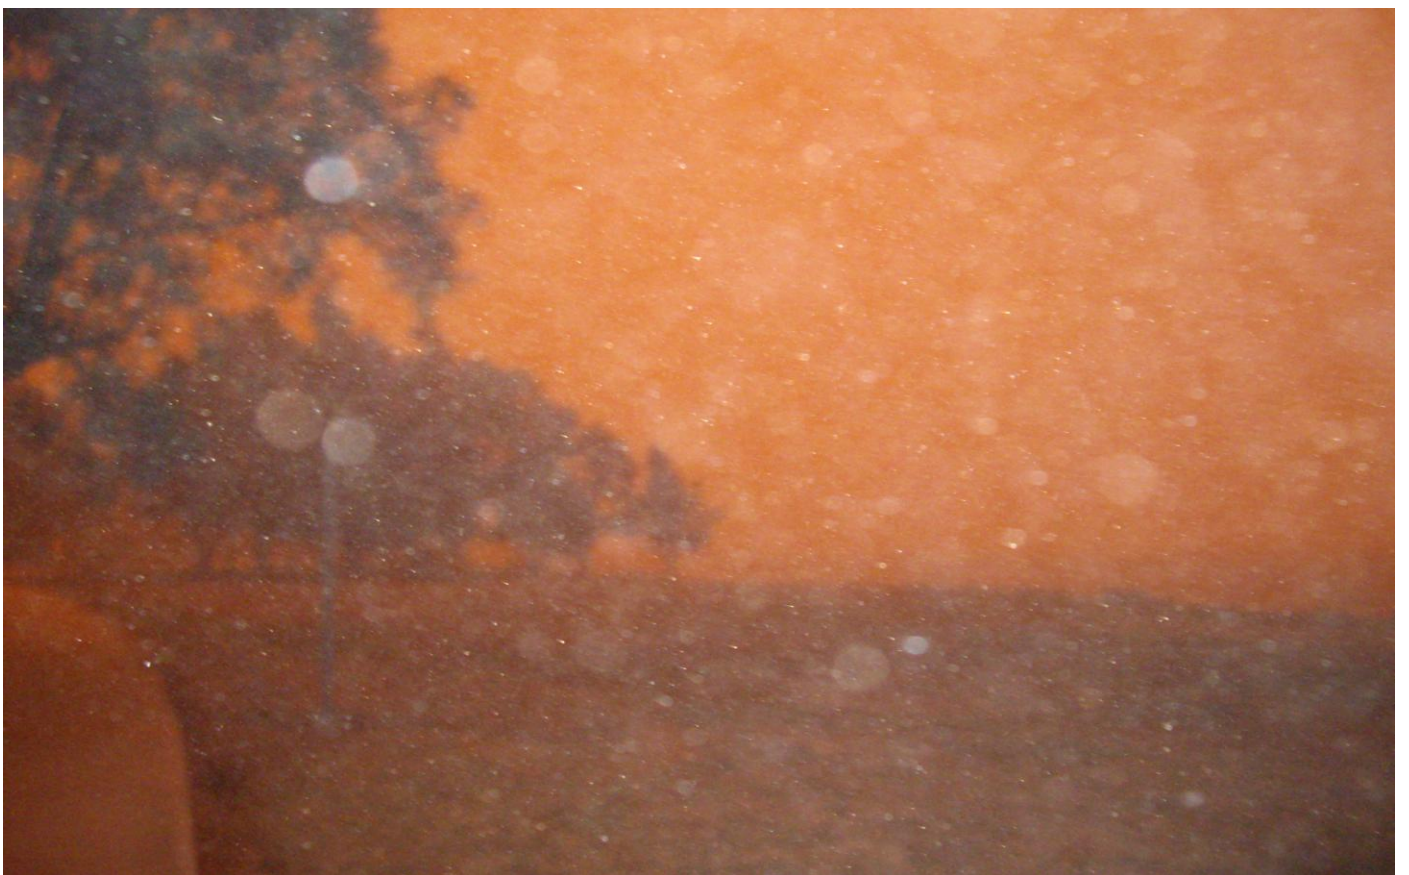

August September has been a busy time, being at Nelson Bay Early August then Toowoomba late August. Home from Toowoomba one day then on the plane for Perth and Bunbury early September. Off to Brisbane next

How was the dust storm for everyone. The storm blew in change, the orange colour is to do with 2nd chakra, about relationships. The dirt (dust) to bring out the emotions of old in relationships. The wind to blow them all out to sea (water) to cleans the emotions regarding relationships. In other words we will be bringing out our old emotions to clear regarding relationships. Good luck with the transformation you will be undergoing.

I took some photos of the dust storm, with some amazing results. I got photos with thousands of orbs (balls of energy that appear in photos sometimes). This to me was the conformation that the storm was an energy change (see photos next page)

INSIGHT FOR THE MONTH

SEPTEMBER 2009

The process for this month is about loving the Adult self. As I taught you to love the inner child now we need to balance it out by loving the adult self to bring the total self worth of who you are all into balance.

LOVING THE ADULT SELF

What I would like for you to do is to look into a mirror and look at yourself

While looking at yourself say the following words

“I am loved”

“I am loved by the most important person of all”

“I love me”

“I love everything about me”

“I love the way I look”

“I love who I am”

And what other words you need to say to bring yourself worth into a balanced way of seeing yourself

This process may seem very simple but you will find that at first it may be quite awkward as we are generally conditioned that to love oneself is vain. As with the inner child process this is a very powerful process. This process can be done daily and done with the inner child process. The more we affirm the inner child and the adult that it is loved the more that we feel loved the more our lives will become balanced. The most important relationship to find balance in first is the relationship with ourselves.
